Officer Overseas Now Granddad

When his mail catches up with him somewhere overseas, Lieut. Pat Boyle will learn that he is a grandfather, a son, John Patrick, having been born Jan. 20 at Long Beach to Mr. and Mrs. John Acord (Marcella Boyle), of 1229 Acacia st.

The two grandmothers, Mrs. Boyle and Mrs. Dola Acord of Torrance had to do the "waiting father" act as Mr. Acord is in the Merchant Marine.

The grandfather, a past commander of Bert S. Crossland Post, American Legion, after serving in the navy in the last war, being wounded at Chateau Thierry and receiving the Croix de Guerre, decided to try the Army this time, and ten days after enlisting last summer received his commission and left for overseas service.

The parents of the new arrival are both graduates of Torrance High School.

DO YOU KNOW WHY WE SAY . . . "Sorry, Only One Pound Today?"

Recently, when you came to our Meat Market, you've been told that certain kinds of meat is restricted. This measure has been taken in order to insure your getting your share of the meat we have to sell.

You realize, we are sure, that if we allowed everyone to purchase as much as he asked for, that we would be entirely out of certain kinds of meat early in the day; and war workers who cannot shop in the morning hours would have to do without.

We are exerting every possible effort to secure as much meat as regulations allow, and we sincerely believe that customers at the IDEAL have shared better than at most other meat markets. And there is the added satisfaction of knowing that you are still enjoying LOW CEILING PRICES on everything you buy.
